SPEND AN AFTERNOON IN PERSIA WITHOUT A PLANE TICKET!

By Roswell Staff

Upon entering the restaurant I was met not only with a heartwarming greetings and smiles but the wonderful aroma of what I would later learn was Kabobs charbroiled on open wood flames. Darvish Persian Tea House gives Roswell the opportunity to experience a traditional Persian tea house just minutes from our homes.

There are still Tea Houses in Persia. They are usually located along side mountainous roads next to waterfalls or rivers. Not only is the Tea House a place to get good food but also a place of peace and rest. This ambiance has been bought to 11235 Alpharetta Hwy through amazing paintings, beautiful authentic Persian rugs, and other décor that reflect the Persian culture. If you listen you can even hear the running waters of the waterfall.

Alex and Uncle Fred are your hosts complemented by a staff that is very attentive to every need. Everything I tasted was delicious! The delicate flavors of the appetizers and the tenderness of the Kabob-e-Barg (Fillet Mignon, marinated with Uncle Fred's secret saffron recipe) served with dipping sauces, combined to make my meal a wonderful experience I will remember for years.

I can see the truth in Alex's words, "Hospitality is our number one goal, which includes great food and excellent service. Our pleasure is for you to experience an amazing feast with us and bring your friends and loved ones with you next time."
